* Professor Szemelényi, a pupil of the composer, heard this Etude performed by Liszt at his concerts in Vienna.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats). The music features a complex melodic line in the upper staff with various accidentals and a steady accompaniment in the lower staff. Above the first measure of the upper staff, there are fingering numbers: 5, 3, 4, 2, 1, 5, 3, 1, 5, 2.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats). The music continues with a complex melodic line in the upper staff and a steady accompaniment in the lower staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats). The music continues with a complex melodic line in the upper staff and a steady accompaniment in the lower staff.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats). The music continues with a complex melodic line in the upper staff and a steady accompaniment in the lower staff.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats). The music continues with a complex melodic line in the upper staff and a steady accompaniment in the lower staff.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-4. Treble and bass staves with complex rhythmic patterns. A fermata is placed over the final measure.

Second system of musical notation, measures 5-8. Treble and bass staves with complex rhythmic patterns. A fermata is placed over the final measure.

Third system of musical notation, measures 9-12. Treble and bass staves with complex rhythmic patterns. The word sempre is written above the final measure.

Fourth system of musical notation, measures 13-16. Treble and bass staves with complex rhythmic patterns. The words de, cres, cen, and do are written below the first four measures.

Fifth system of musical notation, measures 17-20. Treble and bass staves with complex rhythmic patterns. The words e, per, den, and dosi are written below the first four measures. The final measure is marked pp.
