[illegible]

The musical score for 'L'Espresso' by Franz Liszt is presented in two systems. The right hand (treble clef) plays a rapid, intricate melody consisting of sixteenth-note runs and chords, with detailed fingerings (1-5) indicated above the notes. The left hand (bass clef) provides a harmonic foundation with chords and single notes. The first system includes a 'p subito' (piano subito) instruction, and the second system includes a 'poco più f' (poco più forte) instruction. Pedal markings, including 'Ped.' and asterisks, are placed below the left hand part to indicate pedaling points.

Coda.
Presto.

The musical score is written for piano and bass. It consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The score includes various dynamics: pp (pianissimo), p (piano), cresc. (crescendo), più cresc. (more crescendo), f (forte), dim. (diminuendo), and mp (mezzo-piano). The piece is marked Presto. The notation includes many slurs, ties, and fingerings (e.g., 5, 2, 3, 1, 5, 3, 5, 3, 7). The bass staff has a repeating pattern of eighth notes, often marked with a 'Ped.' (pedal) and an asterisk. The treble staff features more complex melodic lines with slurs and ties. The score ends with a final measure in the bass staff marked with a 'Ped.' and an asterisk.

First system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The bass staff contains a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes. A cresc. (crescendo) marking is placed above the bass staff. Below the bass staff, the word "Ped." is written under each measure, followed by an asterisk.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment. A f (forte) marking is placed above the bass staff in the third measure. Below the bass staff, the word "Ped." is written under each measure, followed by an asterisk.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment. Below the bass staff, the word "Ped." is written under each measure, followed by an asterisk.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff contains chords and rests. The bass staff contains a melodic line with eighth notes. A f non legato marking is placed above the bass staff. Below the bass staff, fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) are indicated for the first five measures.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff contains chords and rests. The bass staff contains a melodic line with eighth notes. A cresc. (crescendo) marking is placed above the bass staff. Below the bass staff, the word "Ped." is written under each measure, followed by an asterisk.

The musical score consists of five systems of staves. The first system has a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one flat and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff has a 7-measure rest followed by a series of chords. The second staff has a continuous eighth-note melody. The third system continues the eighth-note melody in the first staff and has a more complex bass line. The fourth system features a crescendo leading to a fortissimo section with triplets and a 'più presto' tempo change. The fifth system includes a 'brillante cresc.' section with triplets and a final fortissimo section. Performance instructions like 'ff con molto fuoco', 'p subito', 'mf', 'cresc.', 'più presto', 'non legato', and 'brillante cresc.' are placed above the staves. Fingerings and articulation marks are present throughout the score.
