BOOKS OF INTEREST TO ORGANISTS®

The Organ Accompaniment of the Church Services

By H. W. Richards

1.50

Because of the subject and the thorough-going excellence of its handling, this book is a necessity to the accompanist of Anglican services. At the same time, organists in other fields will find in this manual a rich store of helps, and it will hasten the effective application of the student's technic to the actual conditions of an organist's vocation.

From the large number of testimonials received we quote the following:

Warren Andrews, New York: "I consider the work a most valuable one and shall advise my students to purchase and read it."

George A. Burdett, Boston: "I can most heartily endorse the work. It is incisive and discriminating."

William C. Carl, New York: "If we had more admirable and scholarly books of this sort, the standards of church music would be speedily raised".

Clarence Eddy, New York: "I especially recommend the book to every organist and choirmaster."

S. Harrison Lovewell, Quincy, Ill.: "May the book be widely purchased and accomplish its purpose."

Everett E. Truette, Boston: "I consider the work invaluable to young organists."

Organ Playing: Its Technique and Expression

By A. Eaglefield Hull

2.00

It is no immoderate claim to say that this book is the first treatise of its kind dealing exhaustively with both the technical and æsthetic sides of organ performance. The author's outlook takes account of organ playing as a living art, rooted in the past but now developing new phases that call for recognition and educational record. Over 180 musical examples from older and modern sources are included in his pages, with diagrams, copious lists of selected organ compositions, a glossary, and specifications and art illustrations of cathedral and concert instruments.

NEW ORGAN LITERATURE

THE BOSTON MUSIC CO. ORGAN ALBUMS

Vol. V, "BROWN ALBUM." Just published

1.25

IN these collections, especially compiled for The Boston Music Co., the balance between church and concert numbers, originals and arrangements, and older and modern composers has been kept in mind. The demand for such organ miscellanies is constant, but has seldom been so accurately met as in this series.

ORGEL

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It contains a series of chords and melodic lines, including a prominent eighth-note pattern. The middle staff is in bass clef and features a similar eighth-note pattern. The bottom staff is also in bass clef and contains a simpler melodic line. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat. It includes the marking rit. (ritardando) above the staff and a tempo below the staff. The middle staff is in bass clef and features a series of chords and melodic lines. The bottom staff is also in bass clef and contains a simpler melodic line. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat. It includes the marking 8' 4' above the staff and p (piano) below the staff. The middle staff is in bass clef and features a series of chords and melodic lines. The bottom staff is also in bass clef and contains a simpler melodic line. The system concludes with a double bar line.

First system of musical notation. The top staff is a grand staff with two treble clefs. The first treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The second treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The bottom staff is a bass staff with a single note in the first measure.

Second system of musical notation. The top staff is a grand staff with two treble clefs. The first treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The second treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The bottom staff is a bass staff with a single note in the first measure.

Third system of musical notation. The top staff is a grand staff with two treble clefs. The first treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The second treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, with a 'ten.' marking above the first measure. The bottom staff is a bass staff with a single note in the first measure.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, the middle in bass clef, and the bottom in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The music features complex chordal textures with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. A fff dynamic marking is present in the middle staff. There are several 2 (second) and 2' (second prime) fingering indications. A triplet of eighth notes is marked with a '3' in the bottom staff.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, the middle in bass clef, and the bottom in bass clef. The key signature has one flat. The system begins with a rit. (ritardando) marking in the top staff, followed by a pp (pianissimo) dynamic. A M. (Molto) marking is present in the middle staff. The music continues with complex textures and various fingering indications.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, the middle in bass clef, and the bottom in bass clef. The key signature has one flat. The system begins with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking in the top staff. The music concludes with a dim. (diminuendo) marking in the top staff.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of three systems. Each system has three staves: a grand staff (treble and bass clef) and a separate bass staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The first system includes dynamic markings 'p' (piano) and 'p' (piano) on the grand and bass staves respectively. The second and third systems continue the musical notation without additional dynamic markings. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, and slurs, indicating a march-like tempo and character.

lædig, indholdsrig Musik. Den glimter ikke i det melodiske; men dens Harmonier er den rene Fryd for Øret.

Posthulderne vil egne sig fortrinligt til Brug
i Kirken paa Fesidagene, og i Kirkekoncerter vil de kunne skaffe Tilhørerne en musikalsk
