BOOKS OF INTEREST TO ORGANISTS

The Organ Accompaniment of the Church Services

By H. W. Richards

1.50

Because of the subject and the thorough-going excellence of its handling, this book is a necessity to the accompanist of Anglican services. At the same time, organists in other fields will find in this manual a rich store of helps, and it will hasten the effective application of the student's technic to the actual conditions of an organist's vocation.

From the large number of testimonials received we quote the following:

Warren Andrews, New York: "I consider the work a most valuable one and shall advise my students to purchase and read it."

George A. Burdett, Boston: "I can most heartily endorse the work. It is incisive and discriminating."

William C. Carl, New York: "If we had more admirable and scholarly books of this sort, the standards of church music would be speedily raised".

Clarence Eddy, New York: "I especially recommend the book to every organist and choirmaster."

S. Harrison Lovewell, Quincy, Ill.: "May the book be widely purchased and accomplish its purpose."

Everett E. Truette, Boston: "I consider the work invaluable to young organists."

Organ Playing: Its Technique and Expression

By A. Eaglefield Hull

2.00

It is no immoderate claim to say that this book is the first treatise of its kind dealing exhaustively with both the technical and æsthetic sides of organ performance. The author's outlook takes account of organ playing as a living art, rooted in the past but now developing new phases that call for recognition and educational record. Over 180 musical examples from older and modern sources are included in his pages, with diagrams, copious lists of selected organ compositions, a glossary, and specifications and art illustrations of cathedral and concert instruments.

NEW ORGAN LITERATURE

THE BOSTON MUSIC CO. ORGAN ALBUMS

Vol. V, "BROWN ALBUM." Just published

1.25

IN these collections, especially compiled for The Boston Music Co., the balance between church and concert numbers, originals and arrangements, and older and modern composers has been kept in mind. The demand for such organ miscellanies is constant, but has seldom been so accurately met as in this series.

EIN REQUIEM FÜR DIE ORGEL.

I.

Donnez-leur le repos!

Venez à moi, vous tous qui êtes travaillés et chargés, et je vous soulagerai.

(S. Matth. 11, 28.)

Gieb ihnen Ruhe.

Kommet her zu mir alle, die
ihr mühselig und beladen seid,
ich will euch erquicken.

(Matth. Evang. 11, 28.)

Give them rest.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.

First system of musical notation, featuring three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The key signature has two flats. The system includes dynamic markings: dim. (diminuendo) and p (piano). The tempo marking rit. (ritardando) appears at the end of the system.

Second system of musical notation, featuring three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The key signature has two flats. The system includes dynamic markings: molto ritard. (molto ritardando), pp (pianissimo), and pp (pianissimo).

Third system of musical notation, featuring three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The key signature has two flats. The system includes dynamic markings: cresc. (crescendo), mf (mezzo-forte), and mf (mezzo-forte).

This musical score is for a piano piece, spanning measures 130 to 142. It is written for three staves: two treble staves (upper and lower) and one bass staff. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into three systems of five measures each.

System 1 (Measures 130-134): The upper treble staff features a complex, flowing melody with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The lower treble staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The bass staff has a steady, rhythmic accompaniment. The instruction sempre cresc. (always crescendo) is written above the upper treble staff in measures 132 and 133, and below the lower treble staff in measure 133.

System 2 (Measures 135-139): The upper treble staff continues with intricate melodic patterns. The lower treble staff has a more active role with moving lines. The bass staff maintains its rhythmic foundation. The instruction sempre cresc. appears above the upper treble staff in measure 135 and below the lower treble staff in measure 136. A ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking is present in measures 137 and 138. The system concludes with a dim. (diminuendo) instruction in measure 139.

System 3 (Measures 140-142): The upper treble staff shows a change in texture with more rests and sustained notes. The lower treble staff has a melodic line. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment. The instruction p (piano) is written below the lower treble staff in measures 140 and 141. The system ends with dim. and ritard. (ritardando) markings in measure 142.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of three systems of staves. The first system has a treble and bass staff. The second system has a treble and bass staff. The third system has a treble and bass staff. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

System 1:

- Treble staff: a tempo
- Bass staff: pp dolce
- Dynamic markings: pp (twice)

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). It contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The middle staff is in bass clef and contains a complex accompaniment of chords and moving lines. The bottom staff is also in bass clef and contains a simpler accompaniment with eighth notes and rests. Dynamic markings include dim. (diminuendo) and p (piano).

The second system of musical notation continues the piece with three staves. The top staff features a melodic line with various intervals and rests. The middle staff has a dense texture of chords and moving lines. The bottom staff provides a steady accompaniment. Dynamic markings include dim. and p.

The third system of musical notation concludes the page with three staves. The top staff has a melodic line with some grace notes. The middle staff continues the complex accompaniment. The bottom staff has a steady accompaniment. The system ends with a final chord in the middle staff.

First system of musical notation, featuring a grand staff with treble, bass, and a lower bass line. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The first measure is marked p (piano). The second measure contains the instruction accelerando sempre. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It features a grand staff with treble, bass, and a lower bass line. The key signature remains three sharps. The first measure is marked cresc. (crescendo). The second measure contains the instruction cresc. (crescendo). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

Third system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It features a grand staff with treble, bass, and a lower bass line. The key signature remains three sharps. The first measure is marked f (forte). The second measure contains the instruction f (forte). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

This musical score is for a piano piece, page 13, measures 1 through 12. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The score is written for three staves: Treble, Bass, and a lower Bass staff. Measures 1-4 show a complex texture with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, particularly in the Treble and upper Bass staves. Measures 5-8 continue this intricate pattern. Measures 9-12 mark a change in texture, with the Treble staff featuring more sustained chords and the Bass staves showing a more rhythmic, dotted pattern. The tempo marking 'a tempo' appears at the start of measure 9. The dynamic marking 'dim.' (diminuendo) appears in the lower Bass staff at the start of measure 11.

BOOKS OF INTEREST TO ORGANISTS[®]

The Organ Accompaniment of the Church Services

By H. W. Richards

1.50

Because of the subject and the thorough-going excellence of its handling, this book is a necessity to the accompanist of Anglican services. At the same time, organists in other fields will find in this manual a rich store of helps, and it will hasten the effective application of the student's technic to the actual conditions of an organist's vocation.

From the large number of testimonials received we quote the following:

Warren Andrews, New York: "I consider the work a most valuable one and shall advise my students to purchase and read it."

George A. Burdett, Boston: "I can most heartily endorse the work. It is incisive and discriminating."

William C. Carl, New York: "If we had more admirable and scholarly books of this sort, the standards of church music would be speedily raised".

Clarence Eddy, New York: "I especially recommend the book to every organist and choirmaster."

S. Harrison Lovewell, Quincy, Ill.: "May the book be widely purchased and accomplish its purpose."

Everett E. Truette, Boston: "I consider the work invaluable to young organists."

Organ Playing: Its Technique and Expression

By A. Eaglefield Hull

2.00

It is no immoderate claim to say that this book is the first treatise of its kind dealing exhaustively with both the technical and æsthetic sides of organ performance. The author's outlook takes account of organ playing as a living art, rooted in the past but now developing new phases that call for recognition and educational record. Over 180 musical examples from older and modern sources are included in his pages, with diagrams, copious lists of selected organ compositions, a glossary, and specifications and art illustrations of cathedral and concert instruments.

NEW ORGAN LITERATURE

THE BOSTON MUSIC CO. ORGAN ALBUMS

Vol. V, "BROWN ALBUM." Just published

1.25

IN these collections, especially compiled for The Boston Music Co., the balance between church and concert numbers, originals and arrangements, and older and modern composers has been kept in mind. The demand for such organ miscellanies is constant, but has seldom been so accurately met as in this series.

EIN REQUIEM FÜR DIE ORGEL.

IV.

La foi.

Celui qui écoute ma parole, et qui croit à celui qui m'a envoyé, a la vie éternelle.

(S. Jean 5, 24.)

Der Glaube.

Wer mein Wort höret und glaubet
dem, der mich gesandt hat, der hat
das ewige Leben und kommt nicht
in das Gericht, sondern er ist vom
Tode zum Leben hindurch gedrun-gen.

(Joh. Evang. 5, 24.)

The faith.

He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hat everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

(Joh. 5, 24.)
