BOOKS OF INTEREST TO ORGANISTS*

The Organ Accompaniment of the Church Services

By H. W. Richards

1.50

Because of the subject and the thorough-going excellence of its handling, this book is a necessity to every organist. It is a necessity to every organist in other fields will find in this manual a rich store of helps, and it will hasten the effective application of the student's technic to the actual conditions of an organist's vocation.

From the number of testimonials received we quote the following:

Warren A. Lewis, New York: "I consider the work a most valuable one and shall advise my students to purchase and read it."

George A. Bartlett, Boston: "I can most heartily endorse the work. It is incisive and discriminating."

William C. Earl, New York: "If we had more admirable and scholarly books of this sort, the standards of church music would be speedily raised."

Clarence Edwards, New York: "I especially recommend the book to every organist and choir master."

S. Harrison Jewell, Quincy, Ill.: "May the book be widely purchased and accomplish its purpose."

Everett E. Tette, Boston: "I consider the work invaluable to young organists."

Organ Playing: Its Technique and Expression

By A. Eaglefield Hull

2.00

It is no immoderate claim to say that this book is the first treatise of its kind dealing exhaustively with both the technical and æsthetic sides of organ performance. The author's outline takes account of organ playing as a living art, rooted in the past but now developing new phases that call for recognition and educational record. Over 180 musical examples from older and modern sources are included in his pages, with diagrams, copious of selected organ compositions, a glossary, and specifications and art illustrations of pedal and concert instruments.

NEW ORGAN LITERATURE

THE BOSTON MUSIC CO. ORGAN ALBUMS

Vol. V, "BROWN ALBUM." Just published

1.25

IN these collections, especially compiled for The Boston Music Co., the balance between church and concert numbers, originals and arrangements, and older and modern composers has been kept in mind. The demand for such organ miscellanies is constant, but has seldom been so accurately met as in this series.

Der 23. Psalm.

Der Herr ist mein Hirt; mir wird nichts mangeln. Er weidet mich auf einer grünen Aue, und führet mich zum frischen Wasser.

.... Und ob ich schon wanderte im finstern Thal, fürchte ich kein Unglück; denn Du bist bei mir, dein Stecken und Stab trösten mich.

Moderato pastorale.

Otto Malling, Op. 89. Nr. 1.

Man. III. pp

Pedal. pp

The musical score is written for piano and consists of three systems of staves. Each system includes a treble staff, a bass staff, and a lower bass staff. The notation is complex, featuring many beamed notes, slurs, and dynamic markings. The first system has a 'trang.' marking in the middle of the bass staff. The second system has 'ten.' markings in the middle of the bass staff and the lower bass staff. The third system ends with a double bar line and a 'C' time signature. The overall style is that of a classical piano score.

Man. II. Man. III. Un poco più mosso.

mp pp p

First system of musical notation, featuring three staves (treble, middle, and bass). The music is in 12/8 time and includes dynamic markings pp (pianissimo) on the middle and bass staves.

Second system of musical notation, featuring three staves. The middle staff is marked Man. I. and mf (mezzo-forte). The bass staff is also marked mf.

Third system of musical notation, featuring three staves. The middle staff is marked Man. III. and p (piano). The bass staff is marked p. The system concludes with a Tempo I. marking and a pp (pianissimo) marking on the bass staff.

This musical score is for a piano piece, page 6. It consists of three systems of staves. Each system has three staves: a treble staff, a bass staff, and a lower bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The first system (measures 1-6) features a treble staff with eighth and sixteenth notes, a bass staff with eighth notes and chords, and a lower bass staff with half notes. The second system (measures 7-12) continues the melodic lines with various articulations and rests. The third system (measures 13-18) concludes with a final melodic flourish in the treble staff and sustained chords in the bass and lower bass staves. The word tranq. is written above the final measure of the lower bass staff.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It contains five measures of music, each with a slur over a series of eighth notes. The second staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The third staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The word "ten." appears above the second staff in the fourth and fifth measures, and below the third staff in the fourth and fifth measures.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The second staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The third staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The second staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The third staff is in bass clef and contains five measures of music, with slurs over groups of notes. The word "rit." appears above the top staff in the fourth measure, and "rit." appears below the top staff in the fifth measure.

Der 33. Psalm.

.... Danket dem Herrn mit Harfen, und lobsinget ihm auf dem Psalter von zehn Saiten. Singet ihm ein neues Lied, machet es gut auf Saitenspielen mit Schalle.

.... Denn unser Herz freuet sich sein, und wir trauen auf seinen heiligen Namen. Deine Güte, Herr, sei über uns, wie wir auf dich hoffen.

Otto Malling, Op. 89. Nr. 2.

Maestoso.

Man. I.

Manual. f

Pedal. f

Man. II. Man. III.

THE ORGAN WORKS OF OTTO MALLING

Malling is known to organists in this country by a few of his writings, for example, his "Shepherds in the field" and his "Easter Morning" but his monumental series of organ compositions illustrating other Scriptural subjects is not so familiar, because of their comparatively inaccessibility heretofore—a condition now removed by THE BOSTON MUSIC Co's. acquisition of the Sole Agency for America.

To all organists, in Protestant or Catholic churches, who take care to adapt their solo numbers to the church season, Malling's musicianly works throw open a treasury of finely imaginative and original expressions of devotional thought and revered event. For recitals too, with the added opportunity for program annotation, these works have direct application. We would call attention to the variety of other numbers suited to performance in the Passion-tide and Easter season.

BOOKS THAT REENFORCE THE CHOIR-DIRECTOR'S EFFORTS

THE PARISHIONAL CHOIR

30 ANTHEMS FOR MIXED VOICES

[n. 1.25]

Compiled and Edited by ARTHUR H. RYDER

In this Anthem-book, just issued after most careful preparation by a church musician of long and varied experience, we present a collection of numbers having uncommon adaptability, effective for limited choral resources, and at the same time worthy of interspersions among more elaborate selections in the best programs.

A striking combination of strong features has been thoughtfully striven for: 17 of the numbers are copyright originals, to be had in no other compilation, and 5 are new arrangements; a fair proportion of standard (but not hackneyed) selections is included; nearly all of the anthems lend themselves to the best prevailing taste of Protestant churches, including Episcopal and non-trinitarian services; 24 are suited to year-round employment as general anthems, while simultaneously the special application of most of the material to stated occasions and seasons is possible and fitting; 11 of the numbers require no soloists. A useful classification is provided, pointing out anthems of quiet character, those having more dynamic intensity, short anthems, and selections suitable for use as responses, invocations, morning anthems, vesper music, for communion, harvest, various festivals, and the seasons of the Church Year.

Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged

A PLAIN-SONG SERVICE BOOK

FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

[n. 1.00]

By ERNEST DOUGLAS

This book occupies a distinctive place, serving an ideal which includes recognition of plain-song's rightful share in the most churchly type of service—a recognition endorsed by the choir directors who have exhausted the supply of the first two editions. It constitutes a complete and independent choir-manual of the music to the entire liturgy, comprising the choral service and canticles of Morning and Evening Prayer, with Litany, the Merbecke Communion Service, the Missa de Angelis (the latter two with traditionally appropriate organ harmonization) a complete musical setting of Requiem, Occasional Anthems, the Burial Office, Processions, etc.

The author's organ treatments of plain-song exhibit a purity of harmonization within the church modes that in itself would serve to confer an unrivaled value. Alternative Anglican settings for the Benedictus, Magnificat and Nunc dimittis are provided also, with a pointing that excels in flexibility. The influence of this book, in its preceding editions, has already been noticeable in the furtherance of plain-song's appreciation and more extensive use, in which influence the factors of absolute authenticity, completeness and convenience have united in fortunate measure.
