The SECOND PART of Musick's Hand-maid :

CONTAINING

The Newest Lessons, Grounds, Sarabands, Minuets, and Figgs,
 Set for the VIRGINALS, HARPSICHORD, and SPINET.

London, Printed on Copper-Plates, for Henry Playford, at his Shop neer the Temple Church 1689.

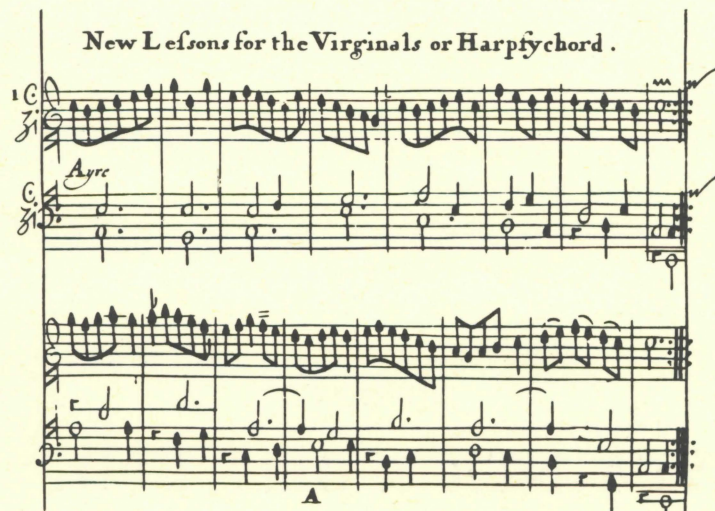

To the READER.

HAVING already published the First Part of Musick's Handmaid, with the Necessary Rules and Directions for Playing those Lessons contained therein: Which Book, for its great Usefulness, having recommended it self to the World, I was encouraged and solicited by the Lovers of Musick to proceed in making this Collection of New Lessons for the Practick Part, the Theorick having been (as I said) sufficiently directed in the former. I have accordingly with much Care compleated this Second Part; consisting of the Newest Tunes and Grounds, Compos'd by our ablest Masters, Dr. John Blow, Mr. Henry Purcell, &c. the Impression being carefully Revised and Corrected by the said Mr. Henry Purcell. The First Part having found so great success, I have so ordered it, that Both Parts may be bound together for such as are not furnished with the former, the Two making a Compleat Book, and useful not only for Beginners, but the more Skillful in the Art. I hope, what I have here Published, will be kindly received from

Your humble Servant,

H. P.

* Each section (save bars 33-40) should be repeated, more softly: note the first- and second-time versions.

The first system of the musical score for 'Scocca pur' is written for piano. It features a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a complex melodic line with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and some triplets. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with longer note values. A repeat sign with first and second endings is present at the end of the system.

20. [Ground: 'Scocca pur']

[G. B. DRAGHI]

The second system of the musical score begins with the tempo marking '[Slow]' and a 3/4 time signature. The treble staff has a melodic line with some triplets and slurs. The bass staff has a steady accompaniment. A measure rest of 5 measures is indicated in the treble staff.

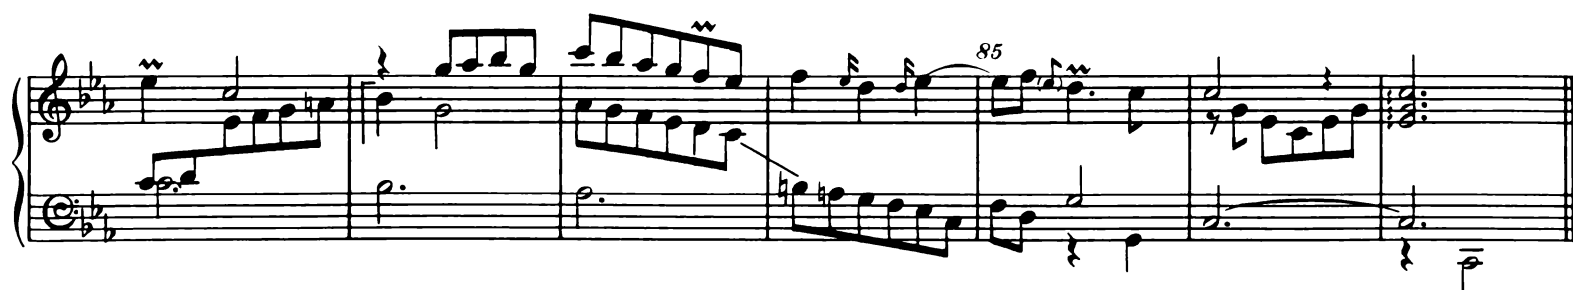

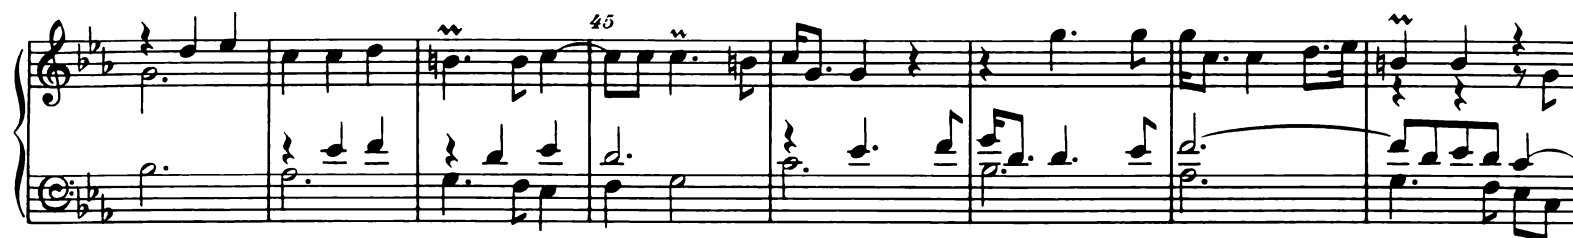

The third system continues the piece. It includes a measure rest of 10 measures in the treble staff, followed by the word 'etc.' and a repeat sign. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The fourth system of the musical score shows the continuation of the melody and accompaniment. A measure rest of 20 measures is indicated in the treble staff.

The fifth system continues the piece. A measure rest of 25 measures is indicated in the treble staff.

The sixth system of the musical score continues the piece. It includes a measure rest of 30 measures in the treble staff, followed by a measure rest of 35 measures.

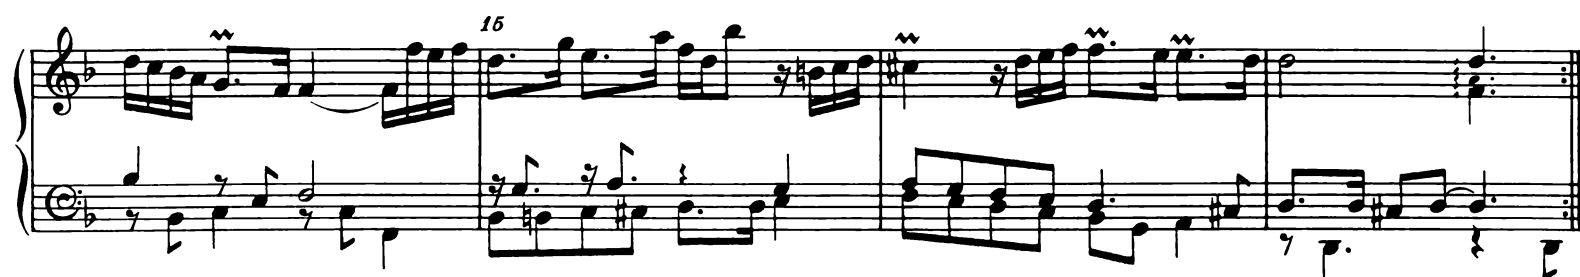

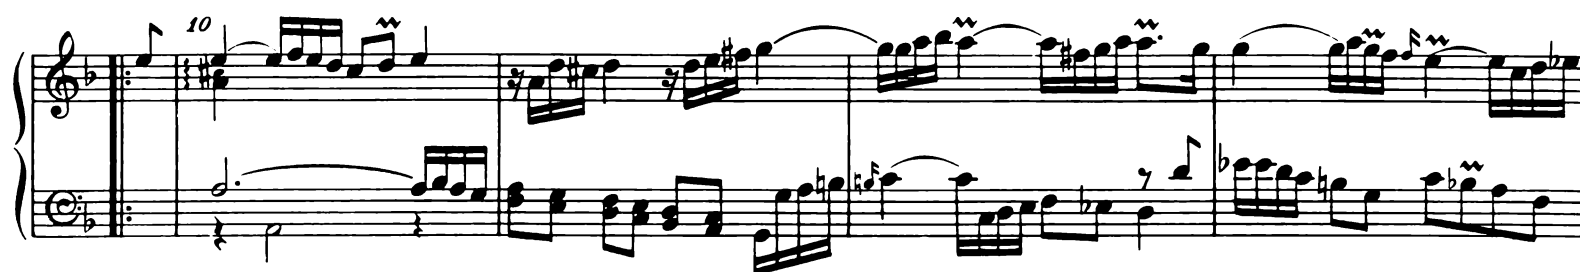

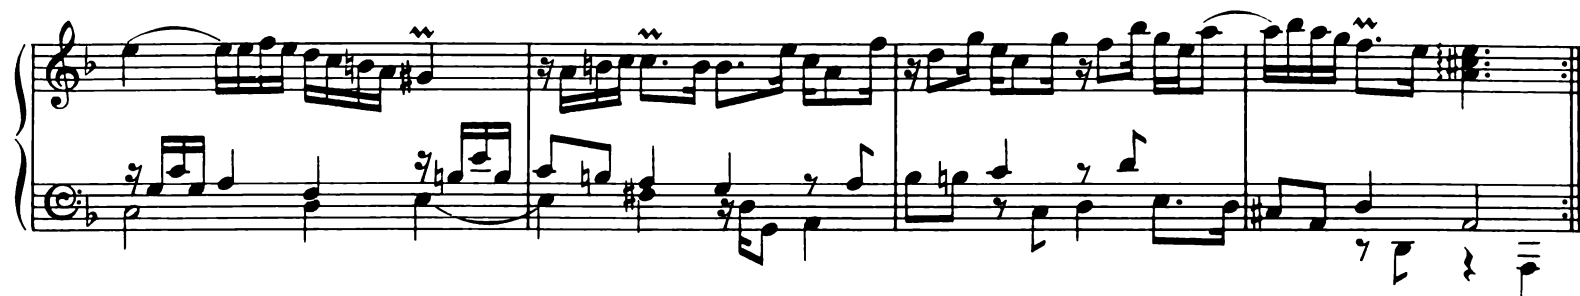

The seventh system of the musical score concludes the piece. It includes a measure rest of 40 measures in the treble staff, followed by a repeat sign with first and second endings.

DR. J[OHN] BLOW

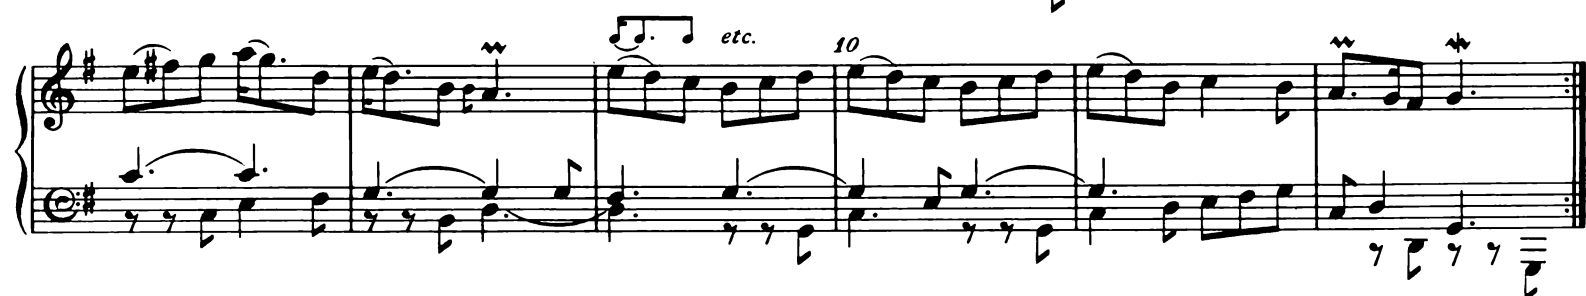

[Brisk]

The musical score for "Mortlack's Ground" is written for a single melodic line and a basso continuo line. The tempo is marked [Brisk]. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into two systems of three staves each. The first system contains measures 1-14, and the second system contains measures 15-48. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing triplets or sixteenth-note runs. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and repeat signs.

This musical score is for a piano piece, spanning measures 19 to 44. It is written in treble and bass clefs with a common time signature (C). The music features a complex interplay of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, often with trills and grace notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter and eighth notes, frequently using slurs and ties. Measure numbers 20, 25, 30, 35, and 40 are clearly marked at the beginning of their respective systems. The notation includes various musical symbols such as slurs, ties, and dynamic markings like p. (piano). The piece concludes with a final measure marked with a double bar line and a fermata.
